

The Pain Society of Alberta and
The South Zone Primary Care Network Committee:
Know Pain Know Gain: Collaborative Care
in Chronic Pain

Friday May 24, 2024
Lethbridge & District Exhibition AgriHub
3401 Parkside Drive
1300-1615h*light refreshments will be served

Expand your connections with other health care professionals and share approaches and solutions for patients. Join us for an afternoon of round table interdisciplinary problem solving on complex chronic low back pain.

Panelists:

- Penny Kowalchuk, Person with Lived Experience of Pain
- Suzanne Buchanan, MN, NP, Blood Tribe Department of Health Inc.
- Dr. Carlos Malpica-Vera, Family Physician
- Drake Mc Cheyne, RN, Alberta Health Services
- Amanda Sowiak, Wound Care Specialist/Educator, Blood Tribe Department of Health Inc.
- Jignesh Desai, Pharmacist
- Martha Butler, Occupational Therapist
- Rory McMullin, Physiotherapist, Alberta Health Services
- Trevor Sakatch, Kinesiologist, Alberta Health Services
- Aingeal O'Mahony-Guyn, Physiotherapist
- Shana Wandler, Recreational Therapist, Alberta Health Services
- Koji Duncan Certified Orthotist and Prosthetist, Adaptive Technologies,
- Susan Conn Conard, Social Worker, Addictions and Mental Health, Alberta Health Services
- Tracy Kwasny, Registered Dietitian, Alberta Health Services

Who Should Attend: Any healthcare provider treating chronic pain including Physicians, Nurse Practitioners, Nurses, Pharmacists, Social Workers, Dietitians, Occupational and Recreational Therapists, Physiotherapists, Psychologists, Chiropractors, Kinesiologists, Recreational Therapists

Visit our website to gather more information and register for free* prior to May 21, 2024

*Registration for AHS and Primary Care Network Physicians and Allied Healthcare Providers is funded through the generosity of The South Zone Primary Care Network Committee. Providers from Private clinics are also welcome and can access registration via the PSA website.

Questions? Email team@painab.ca or visit our website at www.painab.ca/apec